New York, March 29th.—John Jacob Astor the great capitalist of North America, died this morning, at his residence in this city, an an ad-vanced age.

St. Louis, March 29th.—The steamer Lit-tle Missouri was snagged and sunk last Satur-day near Glasgow. She was a total loss.

From Upper Missouri.—Five men have arrived from the falls of Missouri. They left on the 8th of December last. The snow was deeper than it had been before for twenty years.

They had travelled all the way on foot. For five days they were without food. They were relieved by the mormons at council bluff.

The mormons were to start for California on the fiost of May.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

We copy the following from the New Or-leans Delta of the 18th.

The U. S. brig Mary Jane, Capt. Hussey, arrived an Friday from Tampico, bringing intelligence from the city of Mexico to the 24th ult. The Monitor of the 23d ult., states that up to the last accounts from Queretaro, only 35 deputies and 10 Senators had assembled, & that for the space of 15 days only three of the former and two of the latter had arrived.

On the 22d of February the members of the Ayuntamsento, or city council of Mexico, sent a committee to the American Governor, resignant the control of the council of the c

The Norte Americano, of Feb. 17, states that intelligence had been received by various letters from Zacatecss, decaring that Guadalajara, Jalisco, San Blas, and other places had profounced in favor of the dictatorship of San-Anna, and against making peace with the United States ; that all the western department are of the same opinion, and that it was expected Santa Anna would join the army, directing its course towards Tehuantepec. According to the same journal, Gen. Alvarez had pronounced in favor of Santa Anna's dictatorship.

"The flags of several of the vessels in this port were flying at half-mast yesterday, in sympathy and respect to our citizen G. W. Dole, Esq., in the loss which he has sustained in the death of his estimable lady."

pers, many of our readers will learn with deep regret the sudden decease in that city, of an old acquaintance and friend.

Mrs. Dole, a Daughter of General Ephraum Towner, and sister of Mrs. S. C. Holden, was a resident of this Village from her infancy un-til her matriage and removal to Chicago some 43 years ago, and we shall but feebly give urterance to the sentiment of all who knew saying that she was one of the excellent of the Platt st.
